

I feel strongly that Airl serves our family and community in a positive way. There is so much garbage music out there and this station my kids can listen too and I don't have to screen the lyrics. This station is the favorite of my boys. Positive and safe means all in our area will never be offended by it. The service they provide is in the public's interest because of it's safe content.